

Still think the Wrights flew first?

This true account will change perceptions about early aviation history, forever.

AVAILABLE NOW

Learn how a German immigrant and inventor built and flew the world's first powered airplane in Connecticut, over two years before Kitty Hawk.

This true account tears off the veil, revealing the most radical controversy in aviation history.

Written by a longtime professional educator and Whitehead researcher, this book can serve as a reference concerning Gustave Whitehead. Suitable for ages 13 - Adult

432 pages | 192 Illustrations | Appendix | Bibliography | Resources | Comprehensive Index

Apex Educational Media | www.GustaveWhiteheadBook.com